On the 25th June, 1976 the Family Group Home, Mackay conducted by the Churches of Christ in Queensland Social Service Committee was licensed under the Children's Services Act of 1965 for the Care, Protection and Welfare of children. [78B(2)(c)] was named in the Licence as the person in charge.

Advice received from the governing body of the Family Group Home indicates that [] has now assumed the responsibility of the Director of the Churches of Christ in Queensland Social Service Committee.

Clause 32 of the Children's Services Act was amended in April, 1973 to provide:

"(1) Whenever, in relation of a licensed Institution, there is a change in -

- (a) the person in charge; or
- (b) the persons constituting the governing authority; or
- (c) the name of the Institution,

the governing authority of the Institution shall cause notification in writing of such change to be given forthwith to the Director.

(2) Where the Director receives notification of any change in a particular that is shown in the form of license of licensed Institution he shall inform the Minister who may authorize the making of an appropriate alteration in that particular in the form of license."

In the circumstances, you may be pleased to authorize the making of the appropriate alteration to the License of Institution whereby Mr Donald Edward Stewart will be named as the person in charge.

91I/3/0

On 24th April, 1976 the new Family Group Home at Mackay conducted by the Churches of Christ in Queensland was officially opened by The Honourable The Premier.

Section 31 of The Children's Services Act 1965 - 1974 provides for the licensing of institutions as follows:

" Licensing of institutions. (1) The Minister may, by writing under his hand, approve, for the purposes of this Act, of any institution conducted or to be conducted by any person or organization for the care, protection, education, treatment, training, control or welfare of children.

In every such approval there shall be named the governing authority of the institution so approved and, in addition, some person as the person in charge of the institution concerned who shall thereupon be deemed to be the person in charge of such institution until the appointment of another person as such has been notified to the Director in accordance with this Act.

(2) Upon approval given under this section the Director shall issue in respect of the institution concerned a licence in or to the effect of the prescribed form and such institution shall be a licensed institution until —

- (a) the governing authority of that institution surrenders such licence; or
- (b) the Minister, by writing under his hand, revokes such approval; or
- (c) the purpose for which such institution is or is to be established at the time of the issue of such licence is varied.

(3) Every institution which at the commencement of this Act is a licensed institution under and for the purposes of "The State Children Acts, 1911 to 1955" shall be deemed to have been so licensed under this section and for the purposes of this Act."

It is therefore recommended that the Mackay Family Group Home, conducted by the Churches of Christ in Queensland be licensed for the care, protection or welfare of children and that the Churches of Christ in Queensland Social Service Committee be named on the form of licence as the governing authority of such institution. It is further recommended that 78B(2)(c) be named as the person in charge.
